

WHAT IS AWANA?

Awana is a nondenominational children's and youth ministry committed to reaching boys and girls with the gospel of Jesus Christ and training them to serve Him. More than one million boys and girls in more than 110 countries attend Awana clubs where they have fun while being taught the Word of God.

Each week, children participate in Game Time, Handbook Time and Council Time. All activities are adult supervised. Snacks are provided.

Game Time - play exciting, interactive group games.

Handbook Time - Meet with group leader to review handbook, memorize Bible verses, and discuss life application.

Council Time - sing praise and worship songs, hear Bible-centered lesson.
